Bookings

- From 9:30am - 4:00pm, Monday to Sunday (closed Good Friday, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day).
- Teachers are admitted free-of-charge at recommended ratios of 1:10. Any Learning Support Assistants are also admitted free when the museum staff is notified beforehand. Other accompanying adults are welcome and will have to pay the admission fee.

- Accompanying teachers/supervisors are always responsible of their students' behaviour during the entire visit at the museum/site.

Admission

- All pre-booked education groups have free admission to all museums except the Hal Saflieni Hypogeum when accompanied by their supervisors and when such visit is required as part of the national curriculum.

Cancellation Policy

- Any cancellation is to be notified to the museum/site prior to the date of the visit as otherwise a cancellation fee of €25 will be charged accordingly.

Arrival

- On the day of the visit please arrive around 15 minutes before the booking time. Starting the event on time will ensure that the activity is enjoyed to the full and does not exceed the time limit required for the return home.
- Wheelchair access may be available in some of the museums/sites. Please enquire for further information when you call to book your visit.

Student lunches and baggage

- Some museums/sites are restricted with space limitation so it is requested that students do not bring large school bags for their lunches and drinks into the museum.
- Eating is not allowed within the museums' galleries and archaeological sites.
- The lunching area indicated by the museum officials should be kept clean by disposing of any litter in the appropriate bins available.

Please refer to the Terms & Conditions of the booking forms for further details.
