

Hal Safflieni Hypogeum

This truly unique site is inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. The Hypogeum consists of halls, chambers and passages hewn out of the living rock and covering some 500m². The complex dates back to about 4000 BC, and was used over a span of many centuries, up to c. 2500 BC. It is dug on three levels – the upper level, the middle level and the lower level.

Opening Times: Monday to Sunday: 09.00 - 16.00hrs.

Closed: 24, 25 & 31 December, 1 January & Good Friday.

Pre-booked Guided Tour tickets: Adults (18-59 years): €35.00/ Youths, Students & Seniors: €20.00/ Children (7-11 years): €15.00. Purchase tickets early since tours are often sold out weeks in advance. Children 6 years and under cannot enter this site. Tickets are not available at the door. Tickets: <https://booking.heritagemalta.org/>

Address: Burial Street, Paola PLA 1116

Tel: +356 21 805 019

How to get there: Take a bus to Paola town centre and follow the signs from there.

Other Heritage Malta sites in the vicinity: Tarxien Temples