

Medieval Malta Exhibition Series - enlightening the dark ages is curated by the National Museum of Archaeology, with the collaboration of Heritage Malta's Curatorial, Conservation, Projects, and Corporate Services divisions.

Heritage Malta also wishes to gratefully acknowledge all those who have collaborated in developing this exhibition and the associated outreach events, including:

Joseph Magro Conti, Christian Mifsud and Mevrick Spiteri
(Superintendence of Cultural Heritage)

Prof. Nicholas Vella
(Department of Classics and Archaeology, University of Malta)

Prof. Dominic Fenech and Mr Charles Dalli
(Department of History, University of Malta)

Dr Brunella Bruno and Architect Raffaella Giacometti.

Suggested Further Reading

For those who wish to read further on the archaeological and historical subjects raised in this event, a list of suggested readings may be downloaded from the following link:

<http://heritagemalta.org/medieval-bibliography>

